

Acrylics Workshop

RICHARD ROGERS

Richard Rogers is a South Australian artist known for iconic Australian images and the vibrancy of his style. Bold use of colour and confident brushwork give his landscapes a contemporary feel. Strong design, use of pattern, rhythm and introduced elements of abstraction also add to the great visual appeal to his paintings.

Workshop Overview

Richard's workshop aims to give participants a better understanding of their tools (paints and mediums) and help them expand or refine your repertoire of painting techniques.

- > Guidance with principles of design, colour theory and 'rescuing' paintings;
- > Difference between interactive and other acrylics;
- > Overview of different mediums and how they can be used—water, binder, fast dry/fixer, slow, clear, varnishes, impasto gel, modeling compound and unlocking formula;
- > encouraged and assisted to pursue your own artistic vision, whether that is to paint more realistically, or to paint more abstractly, figuratively, or more loosely.
